

A RETURN OF LEE'S LEGION: 1778-1780

As found in National Archives Microfilm collection, Roll 16, Target 4, Volume 11.

The overall roster on which the following is based includes officers and men of Sheldon's [2nd Continental Light Dragoons] and Moylan's Dragoons [4th Continental Light Dragoons] and Lee's Legion; 1778-1780. Only the latter's returns are presented here however. Given the context of the original document, it might appear that only the members of Lee's Legion cavalry, and not the members of the Legion infantry, were intended to be included. Yet this is mistaken; as at least some named here were part of the Legion infantry. At the same time, the list is not exhaustive and only records members of the Legion up until and including 1780. To supplement this, some additional rosters are incorporated as an appendix; while for further, see my:

"Lee's Legion Remembered: Profiles of the 2d Partisan Corps as taken from Alexander Garden's Anecdotes (1822 & 1828 eds.)," and available at: <http://archive.org/details/LeesLegionRemembered>

Note, this is a return only of Lee's Legion and which unit was not commissioned into service by Congress until Feb. 1780. Consequently, many Legion troopers listed here were with Lee's "horse" before to that time, and or prior to the date given them here for their enlistment, and which therefore records only the period they were formally entered into the officially established Legion, not their possible previous service with Henry Lee's cavalry (where and when applicable.)

Although virtually identical, the transcription below is not in every point or strictly speaking verbatim, and occasionally some information, such as dates, are unabbreviated or written out more completely, for clarity's sake, than in the source document. As some parts of the writing in the original are illegible or very faint, it is possible, though not very likely, that something has been recorded by me in error. An effort has been made to help obviate this by sic erat scriptum or "sic" notations.

Last but not least, my deep and warmest thanks to John Strahin, a descendant of a Sergeant of the same name, John Strahan, in Lee's Legion; who provided scans of the National Archive source document.

Wm. Thomas Sherman

APPENDIX

Most of the following information in the first section of the appendix comes from the Heitman Register of Continental Army Officers; which we more or less reproduce. Unless noted otherwise, all listed here survived the war.

- * Major Henry Peyton, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
 Cornet in the Virginia cavalry, 18 June 1776; 2d Lt. in the 1st Continental Dragoons, 12th Feb., 1777, Captain-Lieutenant of Lee's Battalion of Light Dragoons, 7 Apr. 1778; Captain, 2 July 1778; Major, 17 February 1780. The Heitman Register states Peyton was killed at Charleston, 12 May 1780, but this is obviously an error. Lee speaks of Peyton's still being alive in a letter to Greene of 25 Jan. 1781 (Nathanael Greene Papers, vol. VII, Showman-Conrad editors, p. 197.). Quite what then became of Peyton is, to this writer at any rate, a mystery. Some genealogical sources make reference to a Henry Peyton dying at the age of 39 in July 1781 in Prince William County, VA.; having made and signed his will on 22 May 1781. Whether this is the same person in question isn't at present clear.
- * Major John Rudolph, Legion Cavalry, Maryland
 Cousin of Michael, and known as "Fighting Jack." Lieutenant of Lee's Battalion of Light Dragoons, 20 Apr. 1778; Capt, 1st Oct. 1778; Major, -- 1781; died 8 Dec. 1782.
- * Captain Henry Archer, Legion Cavalry, Maryland
 Cornet in the Legion, 1 January 1779; Captain, 1780; served till close of war.
- * Captain Patrick Carnes, Legion infantry, Virginia
 Surgeon's Mate, 1st Continental Dragoons, 31 March 1777; Lieutenant of Lee's Legion, 22 April 1778; Captain, -- 1780; served to close of war.
- * Captain Hurd
- * Captain Ballard Smith, Legion Infantry, Virginia
 Ensign in the 1st Virginia, October 1776; 2d Lieutenant, 9 August 1777; 1st Lieutenant, 18 November, 1777; Captain-Lieutenant., 12 May, 1779,. At some point thereafter, assuming Heitman is correct with respect to the foregoing, he was transferred to the Legion and served to war's close. He died 20 March 1794.
- * Lieutenant George Carrington, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
 Lieutenant in the Legion 1779, at which rank he served till June 1783.
- * Lieutenant George Guthrie (also Guthrey), Legion Cavalry, Pennsylvania
 Cornet of cavalry, Pulaski's Legion - July 1778; Lieutenant, 4th Continental Light Dragoons - 1781.

- * Lieutenant Heard, Legion Cavalry, see Lee, Memoirs p. 272.
- * Lieutenant John Jordan
- * Lieutenant Stephan [or Stephen] Lewis, Virginia
Sergeant in Lee's Legion; Aug 1778; Lieutenant and Regimental quartermaster, 20 August, 1779, served to close.
- * Lieutenant William Lewis, Virginia
Lieutenant in Legion 1778; killed 14 Sept. 1779 at Genesee, N.Y.
- * Lieutenant Swanson Lunsford, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
(1754-1799) From Petersburg, Virginia, died in Columbia, S.C. Cornet in the Legion – 1779; Lieutenant in 1781. For the dashing raid he participated in March 1781, see footnote marked in Garden's profile of Perry Scott above.
- * Lieutenant Jonathan Snowden, Legion Cavalry, New Jersey,
Ensign 1st New Jersey, 26 April 1777; 2d Lieutenant, 14 April 1778; 1st Lieutenant, 26 October 1779; transferred to Lee's Battalion of Light Dragoons in 1780; wounded at Guilford Court House, 15 March 1781, Aide de camp to General Hand May, 1781, to close of war; Captain in the Levies in 1791; Military Storekeeper United States Army, 5 May, 1808. Died 25 December 1824.
- * Lieutenant William Winston, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
Sergeant of Lee's of Light. Dragoons 7 Apr. 1778; Cornet 1 Aug. 1779; Lieutenant and Adjutant, 1781 and served to close of war. Died 1804.
- * Ensign Cuthbert Harrison, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
Lieutenant Virginia Dragoons 15 June 1776; Captain 1st Continental Dragoons, 12 February, 1777, and served to ---
- * Ensign James Lovell, Legion Cavalry, Massachusetts.
Ensign of Lee's Continental regiment, 25 May 1777; regimental Adjutant, 10 May 1778; transferred to Jackson's Regiment, 22 April 1779; transferred to Lee's Battalion of Light Dragoons in March, 1780, and was Adjutant of the same till war's end. Died 10 July 1850.

- * Cornet Frank Thornton, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
Cornet in the Legion from 21 April 1778 to 1 January 1779.
- * Cornet Albion Throckmorton, Legion Cavalry, Virginia
Born about 1740; Cornet in the 1st Continental. Dragoons--, 1779; retired 9 November 1782.
- * Sergeant-Major John Champe, Legion Cavalry, Virginia

(1756?-1798?) In October 1780, Champe was sent on a secret mission (and which required his desertion from the Legion being feigned) designed to capture Benedict Arnold. Although the scheme failed, Champe managed to escape and make his way back to the Legion, then in South Carolina, in about May 1781. However, Greene shortly thereafter sent him north, "with a good horse and money," to Gen. Washington and who discharged Champe from further service "lest he might in the vicissitudes of war, fall into the enemy's hands; when if recognized he was sure to die on a gibbet." He died in Kentucky probably about 1798 or somewhat earlier. See Lee's Memoirs, pp. 394-411, and Boatner, pp. 193-194.

*“Geo. Newman Fault [sic, fought] for 4 years under me & died valiantly
[signed] Henry Lee Jr. Late Lt. Colo.”*

Thanks to the truly outstanding and superb work of William T. Graves and C. Leon Harris a number of Legion pension statements, Bounty Land Warrants, and Rosters are available online at:

<http://revwarapps.org>

The following are as many entries that I could identify as Legion members; though bear in mind this list should not be presumed to be exhaustive as far as what that website else does or might contain respecting Legion members and records. A relatively small number of these listed are open to question as to whether or not the claimant (or the one being claimed for on behalf of surviving relatives) was actually in the Legion. Yet where there was some amount of documentation and or credible memory invoked in their statements, I decided to give the veteran the benefit of the doubt and thus include them. In other instances, the proof shown was so slight that the individual in question was not included (though perhaps wrongly so on my part.) Some will have spoken as having been “attached” to the Legion, and it is not always clear whether the association or connection to Lee’s Legion was a temporary expedient or formal enlistment. But if the statement more or less clearly indicates the former, they were usually omitted here.
